

System Security and Law Enforcement

Ad Hoc Transit Policing Committee

November 18, 2015

Introduction

- Status update on the Office of the Inspector General's Metro Policing and Security Workload and Staffing Review
- Status update on System Security and Law Enforcement

OIG: Metro Policing & Security Workload & Staffing

Progress To Date

- Identified Risks Facing the Metro System
- Reviewed Current Risk Mitigation Strategies
- Met with Local Law Enforcement to Discuss Roles
- Reviewed and Discussed Metro Security Role
- Analyzed Law Enforcement / Security Work Load
- Conducted Employee Surveys
- Met with Transit Policing Working Group and Developed Goals, Key Priorities and Key Strategies
- Began Developing Staffing Options

OIG: Metro Policing & Security Workload & Staffing

Next Steps

- Complete Development of Staffing Options with Estimated Costs
- Develop Draft Report
- Obtain Feedback on Draft Report
- Finalize Report – planned by the end of 2015

System Security & Law

Enforcement Update & Next Steps

- Staffing
  - Status of Board authorized positions – 2 of 3 completed.
- Internal Police Services RFP working group underway.
- Design a scope of work that meets Metro's operational needs, contains specific performance metrics, increases accountability.
- Maximize law enforcement and security visibility throughout the system

System Security & Law

Next Steps Enforcement

- Detailed focus on deployment strategy for contract security, Metro security and law enforcement
- Strengthen regional law enforcement and community partnerships
- Seek legislation consistent to support new deployment strategy