* Instituto de Avance Integral Latino CDC (IDEAL)	East Los Angeles/Southeast Communities	Instituto de Avance Latino (IDEAL) envisions a community where sustainable transportation and healthy living are at the forefront. We strive to create a culture where biking and other sustainable transportation options are accessible and encouraged, promoting physical health and environmental sustainability. Through their partnership with Metro for the Adopt-a-Bike program, they have been able to make tangible progress towards this vision by distributing over 580 bikes to deserving families and students. By partnering with local high schools, faith-based organizations, and other non-profits, they are not only providing transportation options but also promoting a healthy and active lifestyle.
*Healthy Active Streets	Long Beach/Southeast Communities	Healthy Active Streets was formed in 2014 with the goal of leveraging the bicycle as a tool to empower youth, communities of color, women, and other disenfranchised groups, and has been operating 501c3 since 2021. Their mission is to educate, organize, and provide resources to underserved communities to achieve our vision of regional mobility, equity, and environmental justice. Healthy Active Streets is an anti-racist community-based organization. Healthy Active Streets (HAS) has been contracted to work with Metro's Adopt-a-Bike Program for the past two years, successfully distributing bicycles to underserved communities of color primarily in Long Beach/Southeast Los Angeles and beyond. HAS uses the bicycle as a tool to empower youth, communities of color, women, and LGBTQ+ by leading bike rides and offering free bikes, bike repair, bike safety, and bike valet services independently and in partnership with other community groups, and non-profit organizations.

Re:Ciclos, a project of CRSP	Koreatown	Re:Ciclos is a project that redesigns and re-fabricates discarded bicycles and scrap material into cargo bicycles that are then distributed to the local community in the central Los Angeles area. When possible, the project engages students from the local vicinity through internships in assisting in the creation of these human-powered vehicles. Re:Ciclos seeks to partner with other local organizations to provide intersectional collaborations to bring these vehicles to a variety of community members, from unsheltered individuals to families to businesses.
Day One	Pasadena, El Monte, San Gabriel Valley and Pomona	Day One's vision is to create a healthy, connected, vibrant world. Our agency has been providing prevention services for over 35 years. In this time, our team has learned the importance of listening, learning, and leading. The organization works collaboratively with youth, parents, and community partners to share best practices, increase knowledge of healthy life habits, and implement safeguards that help keep youth and families healthy and safe. They recognized low low-income community members are transit and/or bicycle-dependent for transportation and aim to work with the Adopt A Bike program to enable access to inexpensive and sustainable transportation, thereby increasing opportunities for work, education, and healthcare. Day One also values the reduction of GHG emissions and VMT which are inherent benefits from increased biking, walking, and transit use.
