Discriminatory conduct on the basis of an individual's actual or perceived race, religion, color, ethnicity, national origin, age, gender, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, disability, immigration, or employment status, English language fluency or homeless circumstance, is prohibited while performing any Metro activity. Metro has a zero-tolerance policy for any form of confirmed bias or discrimination, and expressly prohibits all forms of biased policing.

The intent of this policy is to avert racial profiling and discriminatory actions in the deployment of Metro security and public safety resources and build mutual trust and respect with the diverse groups and communities Metro provides service to. This policy will serve as a companion to the "Public Safety Analytics Policy", which ensures that any use of internal and external data sources is done in a manner that averts racial profiling and discrimination.

- B. Assure the highest standard of integrity and ethics among all agency personnel.
- C. Identify, prevent, and eliminate any instances of biased policing and racial profiling by agency personnel.
- D. Provide bias-free security services consistent with constitutional and statutory mandates.
- E. Prioritize the use of non-law enforcement response to calls for service when appropriate.

- G. Uphold the agency's commitment to protecting and serving people through transit services, safety, and non-law enforcement resources that promote and strengthen public trust and confidence in Metro and enhance the legitimacy of its policing practices.

It is Metro's policy that except in "suspect specific incidents" where acknowledgment, identification, or reference to a suspect's specified characteristics is critical to the preservation of public safety, police and security officers are prohibited from considering actual or perceived race, religion, color, ethnicity, national origin, age, gender, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, disability, immigration or employment status, English language fluency or homeless circumstance in deciding to engage or detain a person.

3.0 RESPONSIBILITIES

<sup>1 1</sup> This list is not exhaustive but is intended to identify the factors that are most likely to produce differential decisions on the part of law enforcement. The definition of protected classes is consistent with the following laws; Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), and the Rehabilitation Act of 1973.

GENERAL MANAGEMENT Bias-Free Policing Policy

(GEN 64)

The Chief Executive Officer will ensure all agency personnel and contractors engaged in providing safety and security resources are operating in compliance with this policy and adhere to it.

3.1 Fair and Impartial Treatment

1. Biased policing is prohibited both in the enforcement of the law and the delivery of security and police services.
2. Agency personnel shall take equivalent enforcement actions and provide bias-free services to all people in the same or similar circumstances.

3.2 Compliance and Reporting

1. Agency personnel are encouraged to intervene at the time the biased policing or security incident occurs. Agency personnel who witness or who are aware of instances of biased policing are encouraged to report as early as possible.
2. Supervisors shall:
  - a. Ensure that all agency personnel in their command are familiar with the content of this policy and shall be alert and respond when biased policing is occurring.
  - b. Respond to violations of this policy with training, counseling, discipline, or other remedial intervention as deemed appropriate to the violation.
  - c. Ensure that those who report instances of biased policing are not subject to retaliation<sup>2</sup>.
  - d. Employees concerned about leveraging their respective chains of command can contact the Office of Civil Rights at 213-418-3190 to report instances of biased policing and discrimination.
3. Information on biased-policing complaints and any additional relevant information shall be provided to the Chief Executive Officer or their designee in a manner most suitable for administrative review, problem assessment, and development of appropriate officer-level and/or agency-level corrective actions. At least quarterly, a summary of biased-policing complaints should be provided to the Chief Executive Officer or their designee.

<sup>2</sup> The Supreme Court has defined retaliation as an intentional act in response to a protected action. Retaliation is a deliberate action used to send a clear message that complaining is unwelcome and risky. It is employed to instill fear in others who might consider making a complaint in the future. Those with cause for complaining are frequently among the most vulnerable in an institution. Once they complain, they are labeled “trouble-makers.” Retaliation, and the fear of retaliation, becomes a potent weapon used to maintain the power structure within the institution.
