A. Procurement Background

This Board Action is to authorize the CEO to negotiate and award Contract No. C65322C1194, AMC Site Work and Rail Systems Construction, to Hensel Phelps Herzog, JV, a single-source. The Los Angeles County Metropolitan Transportation Authority (Metro) will be constructing the Airport Metro Connector (AMC) 96th Street Transit Station, a new multi-modal transportation center to connect passengers between multiple transportation modes within the Metro system and the Los Angeles World Airports Automated People Mover project. A main component of this new Transit Station will be the installation of a new light rail platform for the Crenshaw LAX (CLAX) rail line. Completion of the AMC Site Work and Rail Systems Construction project will assist in minimizing delays and disruptions to the new CLAX Line while allowing construction to proceed on the new AMC station, preliminary construction work consisting of demolition, utility work, grading and rail systems design and installation is necessary.

- The contract will be negotiated and awarded in accordance with Metro Procurement Policy and Procedures for a non-competitive procurement.

B. Background on Recommended Contractor

Hensel Phelps Construction was founded in 1937 by Abel Hensel Phelps in Greeley, CO. Operations initially were limited to home building and remodeling, after which competitive contract work was undertaken on a limited scale.

Herzog was founded in 1969 by William E. “Bill” Herzog in St. Joseph, MO. Herzog is a leading rail and heavy/highway contractor across North America. Herzog efficiently solves complex transportation problems in challenging operating environments thanks to fifty years of experience and our highly qualified team of professionals.

Herzog provides state-of-the-art equipment, technology, construction, and maintenance services to owners and operators of Class 1 railroads, transit agencies, state transportation authorities, and prime contractors.

The Joint Venture Agreement between Hensel Phelps and Herzog was formed January 21, 2015 to submit a joint bid for the design and construction of the Los Angeles County Metropolitan Transportation Authority Division 16: Southwestern Yard which completed January 2019.
