TIM SANDOVAL

Nominee for San Gabriel Valley Service Council

A 35 year Pomona resident, Mayor Tim Sandoval received his Bachelor's degree from University of California, Riverside. After graduating, Tim returned to Pomona to lead Pomona Valley Community Development Center's youth programs, then taught English at a nearby school. In 2001, Tim became a founding member of Bright Prospect, a mentoring organization that has helped more than two thousand at-risk youth become part of the first generation of their family to complete their Bachelor's degrees. Mr. Sandoval serves as chairperson for the Waste and Recycling Moratorium Task Force, and he is a board member of Clean & Green Pomona, the dA Center for the Arts, and the Pomona Public Library Foundation.
